UNFAILING LOVE

By Dr. Henry Harbuck/ Omega President/General Overseer

*"The Lord leads with unfailing love and faithfulness all who keep His covenant and obey His demands."
Psalms 25:10 NLT*

As I had been reflecting on God's unfailing love lately, I'm reminded of the non-Christian Greek writer Lucian, who lived from 120-180 A.D. He made an observation about Christians, he said, "It is incredible to see the fervor with which the people of that religion help each other in their wants. They spare nothing. Their first legislator (Jesus) has put it into their heads that they are brothers." Lucian said that Christians "spare nothing." Sparing nothing is an example of unfailing love. So, where can we find a definition of love that is valid and real?

First, we need to remember that real [true] love is of and from God; therefore, a human definition will never suffice to describe it. God is the only completely accurate source for a definition that is primarily by, or an observation of, His actions. The love that God demonstrates (and defines) is even harder to grasp, thus we call it "unfailing love." Secondly, unfailing love is the goal that we are [all] trying to achieve as Christians. The only way God's love is made real and complete is for people to show love to others – both inside and outside our churches.

A Christian is a person who has met and believed on the [only begotten] Son of God, having passed from death to life through Jesus Christ. A Christian is one who has died to self and now lives for Jesus. A Christian is one who has experienced a change of mind and repented of his or her sins. A Christian has become an imitator of Christ. Jesus demonstrated agape love, sacrificial love, and unfailing love. Likewise, we must do our best to imitate His actions, and His servanthood. There's a lot of difference between saying, "I love you" and really expressing that love to others. Sacrificial (or unfailing) love automatically includes actions. When there is a person who doesn't know God, the most common way they learn about God's love is through a person who knows and portrays God's love.

We can all be thankful that God never stops expressing His love for us. He doesn't change His mind when we disappoint Him. God's love is will never fail. His love is Light and all that God does is measured with compassion and grace.

The season of change is upon us.
